Finance in Motion Opens New Office in Morocco

The leading impact investment company expands its presence in the MENA region

Frankfurt, Germany, 22 November, 2017 – Finance in Motion, a global leader in asset management and technical assistance management for development finance, has registered a new regional office in Casablanca, Morocco. The Morocco office is Finance in Motion’s 16th regional office worldwide and, together with Cairo and Nairobi, its third in Africa.

Finance in Motion is the advisor to two development impact funds that are active in the MENA region, the Green for Growth Fund and the SANAD Fund for MSME. This new regional office will strengthen relationships with partner institutions of the funds and other stakeholders in the Maghreb region.

“It is our firm belief that being close to our partners by having physical presence in the target regions of the funds we advise is integral to achieving strong impact, and contributes substantially to our success overall,” says Elvira Lefting, Managing Director at Finance in Motion. “This newest office is important for Finance in Motion and for our development finance portfolio, which has increasing activity not only in Morocco but also the MENA region in general.”
